April 12 – Neighborhood Safety Meeting at 6:30pm at 199 Taylor Av

In the last 24 hours Annapolis Police officers responded to 105 calls for service and arrested 6 people.

Good News – Three of the Annapolis Police Department's K9's, Ciro, Peko and Atos are receiving bullet and stab resistant vests thanks to a charitable donation from non-profit organization, Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. The vests are sponsored by David Marberger of Bay Ridge Wine and Spirits. Delivery of the vests is expected within eight to ten weeks.

Robbery – 201600001261 – 100 block of West St – 03/30 at 6:20am: At 7:55am an adult female victim reported that she had been robbed earlier that morning. The victim reported she was walking on West St when two men began following her. They walked quickly to catch up to her and then called out to her to stop. One of the men stepped in front of the victim, blocking her path, and then grabbed the purse from her shoulder, rummaged through it, and removed money, leaving the purse behind. The two suspects fled the area on foot. The victim continued to her work and called the police about an hour later.

Burglary – 201600001267 – 1000 block of Martha Ct – 03/30 at 4pm: The adult male victim was inside his apartment when he heard a knock at the door. He didn't answer and then heard someone manipulating the locked door, attempting to open it. A few minutes later he heard a noise at one of his ground floor windows and when he looked out he saw that the screen had been removed and a man walking away. Outside the apartment, an observant citizen saw two men working together attempting to break into the apartment. One man acted as a lookout, while the other removed the screen. After being startled by the resident, both men left the area on foot. Officers were able to locate two men in the area, Jonathan Hill, 20, of Pasadena and Keontay Ireland, 20, of Annapolis, and they were identified as the suspects. Hill and Ireland were arrested and charged with fourth degree burglary, destruction of property, and theft. Hill is being held on $5,000 bond, and Ireland on $20,000 bond, both at the Jennifer Road Detention Center.
